Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brillient intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER.

Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.

Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emicated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and employments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating [illegible] reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskillful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sigh over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

DR. JOHNSTON,

OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,

BALTIMORE, MD.,

left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe the name and number.

☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Imposters advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

SKIN DISEASES SPEEDILY CURED.

March 11, 1870—1y1pr

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

THE reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it.—Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, which excites a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on a favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or the other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of the disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also, in more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

The Star and Sentinel.

TWILIGHT ANGELS.

BY MINNIE ELWOOD.

The bright sunbeam were fading
From the summit of the hill,
And the moon threw molten silver
On ocean, lake and rill;
'Twas twilight's peaceful hour,
The flowers had bent to rest,
And the wild-wood bird was sleeping
With its head upon its breast.

From the heavens came the spirits,
A strange mysterious throng;
And the rustling of their pinions
Chimed with their sweet, low song,
Unseen, they softly hovered
In the tranquil, twilight air,
Breathing words of love and kindness,
To the heart bowed down by care.

A mother knelt in anguish
And bitter tears she shed;
Her youngest, fairest darling,
Her best beloved was dead.
The angels tarried near her,
They sang of Heav'n and God;
Her soul drank in their music,
While she bent to kiss the rod.

A sweet young girl was praying
For a loved one far away,
And tears like dew-drops sparkling,
Upon her fair cheek lay.
A soft and dreamy murmur
Fell lightly on her ear;
Hope once more filled her bosom.
The angels lingered near.

Oh! evening bringeth ever
A calm and holy spell,
With a pure grey tint o'ershading
The mountain and the dell,
And many a lone heart wonders
At its mild and soothing power,
Never thinking that the angels
Come with the twilight hour!

BELLE ALDEN'S TRAVELLING-BAG.

A train bound for St. Louis had just left the depot of Bellefontaine when, a gentleman entered the smoking-car and laid his hand upon the shoulder of his travelling companion—a tall handsome man of 30, who sat musingly blowing rings of smoke into the air.

"Marcy," said the new comer, "if you want to see at once the sweetest and saddest sight you ever beheld, go into the last car but one on the train. There's an emigrant German woman, with four little children, and during the afternoon the youngest—a baby—has died. The mother and the other children are inconsolate."

"I can understand," interrupted the smoker, "the sadness of such a scene, but where is the sweetness you spoke of?"

"I'm coming to that. The whole party have been taken in charge by a young lady. Such a beauty! She's dried the mother's tears, and wiped the children's noses. She's a divinity! She only needs a few feathers on her shoulder-blades to make a full-fledged angel of her. If I was not a married man, I'd never leave her till I'd made Mrs. Angelica Townsend out of her."

"That's a speech which I shall faithfully report to Mrs. Agnes Townsend," said the gentleman addressed as Marcy, rising. "I shall go back and feast my eyes on this beautiful Sister of Charity, and," he added, taking his travelling satchel and shawl from the rack, "as we stop at the next station, which is due in 10 minutes, I may as well take my traps through with me, and join you on the platform."

Thus saying, Richard Marcy, threw his shawl over his shoulder, and sauntered leisurely through the long train—rushing blindly and calmly to his fate. For, as he entered the last car but one he became a witness and an actor in a scene that influenced his whole future life.

The poor, grief-stricken German, of whom his companion, Dr. Townsend, had spoken, with the dead infant in her arms, sat silently weeping over the little dead face.

The three sturdy children, grouped in childish sorrow about their little dead brother, was indeed a touching spectacle. But, standing beside them, was the divinity of Dr. Townsend's admiration, and she who was most certainly to "share the ends" of the unhappy Richard.

She was a tall, slender girl of eighteen, with magnificent eyes and hair. As he entered the car she was speaking, her lovely face flushed, and the small, rosy mouth, disclosing a beautiful set of teeth, turned bewitchingly toward the tall stranger at the door.

"Ladies and gentlemen," spoke the sweet voice, "this poor woman, friendless and penniless, speaking no English, with four little children, was expecting to find work in St. Louis to support them. If everything had gone well with her it would have been hard for her; but with her little dead baby and sorrowful heart she is certainly a deserving object of charity; and I propose that such as feel willing contribute their mite toward a little purse for her immediate wants and the burial of her poor baby; and," she added, with a bewitching smile, "if any gentleman will lend me a hat I will go round and take up a collection."

In an instant the gallant Richard pulled his travelling cap from his blonde curls and offered it to the Angel of Mercy, who accepted it with a smile; this time all her own, and commenced gathering the readily forthcoming dollars her generous, graceful appeal brought from the purses of all in the car.

Richard watched the slender figure in gray gathering the money, and looking at the plaid cap in the white, jewelled fingers, he bethought him of his own donation, and stepping to the seat the beauty had just occupied, he laid his satchel and shawl upon a family of its kind, belonging to the angel in gray, and took from his pocket a $10 bill, which he placed in the little hand that returned him his cap. Further damage the poor fellow received, when a second smile and warmly-worded thanks for his liberal contribution were dealt him from the beautiful mouth.

Dick was in the midst of an elaborate reply, when the cars stopped. He lingered yet another moment, seized his satchel and shawl, with his eyes still on the face of his charmer, and then, even as the cars were in motion, he bethought himself of the doctor, and hurriedly left the car and joined his friend on the platform.

"Well," ejaculated that worthy, "I began to believe you'd concluded to go and bury the dead baby, and make the protecting beauty Mrs. Angelica Marcy.—Isn't she a stunner?"

"Townsend," returned his friend, "don't use slang in speaking of the noble creature." He looked after the train just disappearing in the distance. "I wish to heaven," he continued, "I'd remained aboard. How stupid I was to leave it. I might have learned her name and residence. And now—"

"Now, in all probability," broke in the doctor, "you'll never meet her in this vale of tears. But you'll know her in heaven, if you behave yourself, well enough to get there, by her wings; she'll have the biggest of any of them, seeing they've commenced to sprout on earth."

And thus rallying his thoroughly captivated friend, the two made their way to the house of an acquaintance, with whom they were to remain that night, and go on the next day to their destination—St. Louis.

After the first salutation our hero went to his room to remove some of the evidences of his long ride from New York. He had removed his coat, vest, and collar; he had splashed, and soaped, and washed, till his damp curls hung close to his shapely head, when he made a startling discovery.

Flushed and breathless, he burst into the next room upon his friend.

"Townsend," cried he, "What upon earth do you suppose? I've got the wrong bag. I've changed baggage with the Angel of Mercy. Look at that slipper—see that thimble—contemplate that glove."

"It's evident you've got the lady's satchel. And what was there in yours?"

"Don't bring up that dreadful idea," said Dick. "Cigars and a hair-brush, a pack of cards and a comb, pocket-flask and a tooth-brush—everything disreputable. If I am judged by that bag, I am a lost man."

"And this I took for a clean shirt," and "Dick held up a frilled and fluted sack, such as do duty for more extensive night-dresses with ladies when travelling. I'd like to see Angelica when she opens my satchel."

And Dick fell to musing, with the slipper perched on two fingers, and the frilled white sack spread out tenderly on his knees.

* * * * * * * * *

In an upper department of a handsome mansion in St. Louis, on the evening of the day our heroine first made the reader's acquaintance, beautiful Belle Alden, the petted and only daughter of the house sat contemplating the various articles her confidential maid was disposing upon the table—articles taken from no less receptacle than Dick Marcy's travelling-bag.

The cards and cigar-case lay side by side, and a highly-scented party they were.

"What's in the little silver flask, Rosa?" said the fair mistress.

"Brandy, ma'am," replied the maid.

"He can't be very dissipated, to travel with such a little bottle. That's in case of sickness, I suppose," returned Belle.

"It's my belief," said Rosa, who was a shrewd girl, "that the gentleman was a mighty nice one, else you'd not so readily excuse the cards and the bottle."

"For shame Rosa. All gentlemen play euchre travelling, and even clergymen, take a little brandy in case of sickness," answered Belle. "And this man was a gentleman and a liberal one, too, for he gave the poor emigrant woman $10.—What's that, Rosa?"

For at that moment Rosa held between her fingers a letter.

Whether it was wrong to read a stranger's letter vexed Belle for a moment, as her eyes glanced at the superscription and [illegible] writing.

"Why, of all things!" [illegible] delighted girl, seizing the letter. "Why, Rosa, this is Jenny Marcy's writing, and addressed to Richard Marcy—her only darling brother—who was in Europe when we two graduated at Madam Ritter's in Brooklyn."

Belle read rapidly until she had reached the middle of the letter, when she burst into a merry laugh.

"Hear this, Rosa," she said, and she read from the letter:

"Above all things, Dick, dear, don't fail, while in St. Louis, to see my best friend and schoolmate, Belle Alden. I know you will fall in love with her, for besides being the best girl in the world, she's a beauty and an heiress, and father's choice above all others for his son's wife. He used to talk it over at home, and hope Belle would not marry before you came home from Europe. She is full as anxious to know you, and wears your hair and mine in a locket father gave her last year. Give her lots of love. And beg of her to overlook your many imperfections for the sake of her old school-fellow, Jenny."

"Then this gentleman is, of course, Miss Jenny's brother," said Rosa, "and what will she say when she hears of your having met in this romantic way?"

"I don't intend to tell her of it till I go to New York this fall," said Belle. "Perhaps her brother will call."

But in this supposition Belle was wrong. The month passed, and she saw no more of the golden-haired Richard.

And she carefully separated the yellow lock in the little keepsake from the dark tress of Jenny's and put it back into its place alone, while another locket held the bit of Jenny's. And somehow Bessie looked very, very often, at the wee golden curl, and she never did so but the rest of the handsome head sprung up beside the lock; and she would sit and contemplate the picture her fancy wrought for her, little dreaming the interest she was allowing to grow in her bosom for Jennie's brother. In the fall Bessie and her father went to New York, and the first day after her arrival found her sitting with her old friend, who, after the first effusive meeting was past, sat down to empty her soul.

"I'm so glad you are here this month," Jenny said, "because I'm to be married in October, and I have always been crazy to have you for a bridesmaid, and Dick is to be Harry's best man." Belle blushed.

"But Dick has fallen hopelessly, madly in love!" Belle turned pale.

"Yes, I was so dreadfully provoked when he passed St. Louis and never went near you. But he went wild over some lady he met on that fatal trip. He will talk to me by hours of his Angelica.—And when I have spoken of you he has been positively rude, and asked me to have done bothering him about my freckled school friends—you know your picture shows freckles; but bless me, you haven't any now! And your picture don't look any more like you than it does like me, not a bit."

"But tell me," said Belle, "is your brother engaged to this lady?"

"Engaged? Why dear heart, he don't know her name. He just found some of her old clothes somewhere. He's got her old slippers under a glass case; he's got her gloves stuffed under another; he's got her night-gown done up in lavender; he has got her gold thimble hung on his watch-chain; and I do believe he has got a hair brush and some hair pins next his heart. Oh, it's folly to interfere. He's beyond all hope! I did think the excitement of my wedding would wean him from it; but not a bit. He looks at my new things as calmly as an oyster, and only said—it's not kind of me to repeat it, though," broke off Jenny.

"What was it he said?" inquired Belle, laughing now heartily. "Don't fear for my feelings."

"Why, he said, 'I'll stand up with your friend Belle, and see you safely married, and then I'm off to winter in Paris. I'm done with love on my own account. It's positively awful.'"

And so Belle thought as she looked at her old slipper and glove lying beneath a globe on either side the faithful Richard's mantle.

"And," said Belle, "since he desires only to meet me on the morning of the wedding, so it shall be. I will be introduced only as we are leaving the house, and he can do as he pleases about continuing the acquaintance afterward."

Belle was radiant with happiness when she returned to her father, and delighted his fond heart by the change, for Belle had been very quiet of late.

Jennie and Belle shopped and talked and visited together for the next few days, and when the morning arrived, and amid a bevy of beautiful girls, Belle shone like a queen, the bride was eclipsed, and delightfully acknowledged it.

"O, Belle!" she said, "I long to have old stoical Dick see you. Hark! there's his step. Come into the next room now, and be introduced. Don't wait till the carriages come—it's an hour yet."

And Belle, with a beating heart, swept through the door and stood even as Dick first saw her, only, in place of the gray travelling dress, a magnificent white satin fell in rich folds about her, and upon her lovely white throat lay the turquois locket that held Dick's golden curl. Upon the beautiful head, crowned by its chestnut hair, a coronal of pearls added to the grace and beauty of an image that, shrined in Dick's heart, was already an angel.

Belle did not look up, but she felt the presence, as Richard Marcy came up and was introduced to little Jenny's old schoolmate. Then, as he held out his hand, she raised her eyes, and laid her tiny palm in his, and said:

"I think we had better rectify that mistake about the travelling-bag, Mr. Marcy!"

"Good heaven, Jenny," said Dick Marcy, "why didn't you tell me that your friend Belle was my 'Angel of Mercy?'"

"Because I didn't know till last night, and then Belle made me promise not to tell. And besides, you didn't want to meet the freckled school-girl till it was positively necessary," returned Jenny, mischievously.

It would be hard to say which of the four that made Jenny's bridal party was the happiest that day.

Dick did not go to Paris that winter.—He found that St. Louis contained more attraction than any foreign city.

But the next fall will see Dick and Belle on their wedding tour, and he vows he will have the two old romantic travelling-bags brushed up for the occasion. Dr. Townsend, who is to go along, says he knew the minute he saw that girl she would one day be Angelica Marcy, as he "felt it in the air."

AN ENGLISH CRITICISM OF TENNYSON.

An Original View of the Poet Laureate.

The truth must be told about geniuses as well as about pretenders. If genius has its privileges, it has also its responsibilities, and when it chooses to abandon these, it deserves the sharpest condemnation—condemnation sharp in proportion to the abasement. Mr. Tennyson's new volume of song poetry is sorry stuff. At present we leave the music out of the question; we limit ourselves to the verse qua poetry and with relation to Mr. Tennyson's previous reputation. We say, then, that the series of songs entitled "Window, or the Loves of the Wrens," would be crude enough and silly enough coming from any versifier, any Linley or Carpenter of the day; but coming from Tennyson they are simply insufferable.—Take any of the stanzas at choice, pick them out any where, they present the same thin spun-out thought, the same tiresome repetitions, the same affectations of simplicity, the same achievement of silliness. Mr. Tennyson proceeds through all these songs on the assumption that to repeat a word or a couple of words over and over again is to make them poetical. To say "blow wind" is prose; but to say "blow, low, wind, O, wind, O, blow, blow, blow," is poetry. The same trick by which he has produced effect in his later productions, exhibited in lines like

"O, love, if love be love, if love be ours,"

Are this time showered upon us at every turn. They commence in the first song. A lover is supposed to be watching the lights and shadows:

"Follow them down the slope!
And I follow them down to the window-pane of my dear,
And it brightens and darkens, and brightens like my hope,
And it darkens and brightens, and darkens like my fear.
And the winds are up in the morning."

In the second song nearly every word is a repetition:

"Vine, vine, and eglantine,
Can not a flower, a flower be mine?
Rose, rose, and clemetis,
Drop me a flower, a flower to kiss,
Kiss, kiss—and out of her bower,
All of flowers, a flower, a flower,
Dropt, a flower.

In the third, the lover has called on his mistress and finds her out. Worse—she is not likely to be at home for some time.

"Gone!
Gone till the end of the year;
Gone, and the light gone with her, and left me in shadow here,
Gone, flitted away!
Taken the stars from the night and the sun from day."

A wild worshipper of Tennyson says the opening of the song is like the heavy tolling of a funeral bell. It is more like the dirge of an auctioneer.

"Gone, and a cloud in my heart, and a storm in the air!
Flown to the east or the west, flitted I know not where!
Down in the south is a flash and a groan! she is there, she is there!"

A flash and a groan? Is anybody then shot? No such luck; else there would be some dramatic action, whereas "The Window" has no action whatever. It is a series of monologues uttered by a moony young man over an absent young woman. The flash and the groan therefore may be taken as meaning the railway train which bears the lady down south; or if not the railway train, probably something else, or possibly nothing at all particular.

Under the influence of the young lady's absence the young man grows rapidly fatuous.

"The frost is here,
And fuel is dear,
And woods are sear,
And fires burn clear,
And frost is here,
And has bitten the heel of the going year."

Are these easy reading lessons for the nursery? Are they rhymes for the children under the age of six? No; this is the last publication of the poet Laureate, the representative singer of the age, the creator of "In Memoriam," of "The Princess," of "The Idyls of the King," of "Tithonus," "The frost is here, and fuel is dear, and woods are sear, and fires burn clear." Evidently Mayor was a poet without knowing it. "Ann has got a can. The fan is for Dan. Has Nan a can?" Such were the laureate lays we learnt in infancy.

"Birds' love and birds' song
Flying here and there,
Bords' song and birds' love,
And you with gold for hair,
Birds' song and birds love,
Passing with the weather,
Birds' love and men's love
To love once and forever."

This is Song V. Observe the admirable accuracy of the rhymes: "weather" and "ever." Could Close do worse than this? Bavius and Mevius may take hope; the Laureate's example excuses their false ear and condones their wretched jingle.

"Birds' love and men's love,
Once and once for all;
And you so small and you so fair.
You so fair and small.
You so fair! am I so black?
Aren't we birds of a feather?
You so small am I so tall?
Can't we come together.

"Baa, baa, black sheep, have you any wool? Yes, master, that I have, three bags full." We are still surrounded by the holy influences of childhood, it may seem.

"Man's love and birds' love,
And women's love and men's?
And you, my wren, with a crown of gold,
You, my Queen of the Wrens!
You the Queen of the Wrens:
We'll be birds of a feather.
I'll be the King of the Queen of the Wrens,
And we'll have a nest together.

In Song VI, the unfortunate young man, having hitherto been childish, becomes suddenly senile. He has determined to propose to his mistress, and dispatches a letter to that purpose. While expecting an answer he is suddenly smitten with senility. His doddering state evident from the last two lines under quoted:

"Some body said that she'd say no,
Somebody knows that she'll say ay,
Ay, ay, ay, ay, ay, ay, ay, ay,
Ay, ay, ay, ay."

This is very painful.

In the next lyric a letter comes, and he is feebly lachrymose over the idea of breaking and spoiling the seal. The idea of cutting the envelope with a penknife does not occur to him.

"Two little hands that meet
Clasped, on her seal, my sweet!
Must I take you and break you,
Two little hands that meet?
I must take you and break you,
And loving hands must part—
Take, take—break, break,
Break, you may break my heart,
Faint heart, never won—
Break, break, and all's done."

The young woman accepted him, luckily for his peace of mind. There is now the prospect of one fool making many,

Be merry, all birds, to-day:
Be merry on earth as you never were merry before,
Be merry in heaven, O larks! and far away.
And merry forever and ever, and one day more!
Why?
For it's easy to find a rhyme."

What, then, is the rhyme? Wait, and you'll see.

"Look! look how he flits,
The fire-crowned king of the wrens, from out of the pine;
Look, now they tumble the blossom, the mad little tits!
'Cuckoo! cuckoo!' was ever a May so fine,
why?
For it's to make a rhyme."

It hasn't come yet, but it is coming.

"O, merry the linnet and dove,
And swallow, and sparrow, and throstler, and have your desire!
O merry, my heart, you have gotten the wings of love,
And flit like the king of the wrens with a crown of fire.
Why?
For it's ay, ay, ay, ay.

There it is? The rhyme to "why" is ay, ay, ay, ay, ap." Is it not sublime—say a pantomime-time?

The last song embraces a note and query—or rather a query and a note.

"Heart, are you great enough
For a love that never tires?
O heart, are you great enough for love?
I have heard of thorns and briars."

Admirable acquisition of scientific information! We likewise have had the phenomenon of thorns and briefs brought under our notice—also of gammon and spinachs. But what happens through this young man's intimacy with hedgerows? What effect has it on the story or any incident in the story? None at all, save—

"Over the thorns and briars,
Over the meadows and stiles,
Over the world to the end of it.
Flash for a million miles."

Tennyson's new work ends with a flash. So does a farthing dip. But then the dip is at least worth a farthing.

A TRAMP FOR LIFE.

The lonely and almost boundless plains of the West have witnessed strange scenes. Many a battle has been fought on them of which no survivor has told the story. Many a human being has lain down to die of exposure and starvation in those remote wilds, without even the poor comfort of being able to transmit his dismal tale to home and kindred. Many a terror-stricken wayfarer has been swept out of existence by the remorseless fire of the prairie, which has crammed its hungry maw alike with white men and red, with the domestic cattle of the settlement, and the wild beasts of the plain. A few bleaching bones, or broken fragments of arms may, perchance, give token of what has passed to some traveler; but the wolves and panthers of those regions are greedy and ill-fed, and generally even the slightest traces of such casualties disappear.

There came into Sioux City some days ago, a man whose chances of escape from the perils of the Plains that beset him were so slight that his preservation seems almost miraculous. An insurance company, even of the sort that take doubtful risks, would hardly have guaranteed Thomas Dormitt's earthly existence for ninety per cent., knowing in advance the task he meant to undertake. Dormitt, it appears, is a Texas cattle-driver. His affairs had drawn him to Fort Buford, and he found himself at that post last October. Luck had gone against him, and he was quite without money—he had not, in fact, a single dollar. He made up his mind that he must go home to Texas. The distance, however, is twelve hundred and twenty-five miles, and it lies through an Indian country notoriously dangerous. Still, weather-wise people at Fort Buford said there was to be an open winter, and the adventurer was likewise persuaded that the Indians of the region had moved southward. He therefore rolled up his blankets and ammunition, shouldered his rifle, and boldly struck out for Texas. When he had traveled two hundred miles, Dormitt was overtaken by a fearful snow-storm. It came down slowly and finely at first, but afterwards in gigantic flakes, piling up higher and higher, covering all tracks, and filling the air with its blinding fury. The unfortunate man gave himself up for lost. He could neither go forward nor backward, and, like the outcasts in Bret Harte's story of "Poker Flat," the only prospect before him was that of a snowy sepulchre. In the moment of his agony, and as if by the special interposition of Providence, the poor fellow stumbled upon a hole in an embankment. Here he remained in safety, and even in warmth, until the storm passed over. As soon as he could make any way through the snow he came forth from his shelter, and—naturally enough—started to go back to Fort Buford. Having gone a mile, he paused and reflected. Texans do not relish the "back track," and Dormitt thought he was doing what was cowardly. Presently he resolved to decide his course by a method practiced among children. He set a stick on end, letting it fall as it would, determined to go in the direction it should indicate. The stick fell toward Texas, and Dormitt, setting his face toward the East, pushed on once again.

At this time he had been without food for two whole days. He argued that he was as likely to fall in with supplies in one direction as another, and this being the case, it was best to prosecute his original intention. Growing weaker and weaker, on the second night after leaving his retreat in the embankment, he discovered another similar hole. Into this he crawled on all fours, when suddenly he clapped his hand on the face of a dead Indian! He drew back with a shudder; but, soon reflecting that a man not afraid of a live Indian need hardly be terrified by a dead one, Dormitt remained in the hole. Presently, to his joy, he found a large piece of frozen buffalo meat, the property no doubt of the deceased brave. This was our traveler's salvation. He ate heartily, slept well, and in the morning went his way. On the following afternoon he fell in with a party of Indians, who robbed, but, strangely enough, did not otherwise molest him. The same evening he came directly upon a monstrous black bear, who was equally considerate. After undergoing extraordinary hardships, and being many times as near apparently unavoidable destruction as in the instances we have described, Dormitt got safely to Sioux City and related his adventures to the editor of the Journal of that place. He had been about seventy-five days in accomplishing his journey, was worn to a skeleton, and almost naked. Curious to say, his health was, notwithstanding, good, and, his wants freely supplied, he was soon in the best of spirits. Many records exists of very small parties accomplishing the transit across our Central Continent, and of others who have tried it and miserably perish; but we have never before heard of a single individual attempting it. The figure of a solitary man setting forth deliberately to make his way across vast and desolate wastes, is romantic and moving. Such a journey might have been attempted by Cooper's Leather Stocking; but with this exception we know of no other character, either in fact or fiction, to whom such resolute hardihood would seem natural or possible.

THE SCOLDING WIFE.

"What fools some girls are!" exclaimed Mrs. Smith, as she sat by the cheerful, blazing fire, while her husband, Mr. W. Smith, was quietly engaged in smoking a cigar, and reading a newspaper. Mr. Smith took no notice of this, and kept his eyes on the paper, as though he was incapable of looking in any other direction. "It's a pity I ever married!" continued Mrs. Smith; "I should have lived a single life, and died an old maid!" Mr. Smith arose from his seat, laid his paper on a table, and giving his cigar a toss into the fire, replied: "Sarah, I am surprised to hear you speak thus for I am sure you are provided with every luxury which I can procure, and I see nothing to prevent your being happy and contented." "Every luxury!" replied Mrs. Smith, "I am not provided with the necessaries of life. I am forbidden to purchase a new fashioned shawl or bonnet!" "I told you I did not think you needed a shawl or bonnet, but if you did, you were at liberty to buy them," replied the hen-pecked husband. "Well, I should not care if you would stay at your office more than you do," replied Mrs. Smith, "for I never enjoy myself when you are at home!" This was enough for Mr. Smith. He picked up his hat and his cane, walked out of the house, and with a slam of the door, walked down the steps into the street, and was soon out of sight. Mrs. Smith kept her seat, almost swearing vengeance on Mr. Smith for being so "harsh" and "sarcastic in his remarks!" We will now follow Mr. Smith. Walking down the street for a considerable distance, he walks into a Hotel and takes his seat among several young gentlemen, who, after a short conversation with Mr. Smith, invited him to accompany them to a gambling house. Mr. Smith accepts the invitation, and after going through several small cross-streets, and two or three alleys, they ascended a rude flight of steps; knock at the door, which, after some hesitation, is opened—and as soon as they enter it is closed again. On entering, Mr. Smith discovers several persons sitting around tables, busily engaged in the game. He takes a seat as a spectator, but is soon invited to participate in the game, which, after some hesitation, he agrees to do, and takes a seat at a table. Mr. Smith lays a fifty dollar bill on the table and wins! He next lays out a hundred dollar bill and loses. He keeps his seat, and in three or four hours, loses all the money he has. The crowd having left, he repairs to a Hotel where he enjoys himself over his glass until a late hour of the night, when with a tottering step, he starts to his dwelling. He arrives; enters; takes a seat near the fire-place; sits a few moments and retires, but not to sleep. His mind wandered back, to the time when he was the beau of Sarah Fordham—and when "not a wave of trouble rolled across his peaceful breast!" But now it was a different case. He saw no pleasure either at home or abroad. Years passed away, and Smith, in the endeavor to drown trouble in the glass of intoxication, drowned his fortune, his mind, his character, and that of his dear little boys, three in number. The last we heard from Mr. Smith and family, he was an inmate of a Lunatic Asylum, his wife in destitute circumstances, living in a poor, mean hut, without friends, and his children, poor little things! beggars in the streets of Baltimore, all caused by a SCOLDING WIFE. Let mothers, old and young, take heed, lest they, like Mrs. Smith, send their husbands to a Lunatic Asylum, and cause their children to follow in the footsteps of Smith's three boys, and die beggars, and, perhaps fill a drunkard's grave! OUR Western paper wants to call another "that sterling sheet," but an unpoetical compositor will put an "a" instead of an "i" in the adjective.

The Star and Sentinel.

FRIDAY MORNING, Feb. 10, 1871.

D. A. BUEHLER, Editor and Business Agent.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

THE French have already got into trouble. The armistice concluded with the Paris Government contemplated the election of a National Assembly, to secure a free expression of the national will, and provide a responsible government to negotiate terms of peace. Favre, on behalf of the Paris Government, accordingly issued a call for an election on the 8th inst., without qualification or condition. Gambetta, on the other hand, from Bordeaux issued a counter call for elections, excluding all who have held office under the empire, or in any wise connected with the Bourbon or Orleans dynasties. As this would ostracise a number of the ablest public men in France, and limit the election to those who sympathize with Gambetta, the practical result would be a packed Convention under the dictation of the latter and his radical associates.

Bismarck, in a letter to the Paris Government, drew attention to this movement of Gambetta as a violation of the spirit and letter of the armistice and an attempt to defeat an expression of the will of the nation—that while Germany had no disposition to interfere with the French in the free choice of a Government, he could recognize none which did not express the popular will. Favre at once issued a proclamation, claiming supreme power for the Paris Government pending this election, denying Gambetta's right to interfere, and threatening him with removal from office if he persisted. To this Gambetta replies defiantly, denouncing Favre and his associates as co-conspirators with Bismarck against the integrity of France, and calling on the people to disregard all decrees issuing from Paris. At Bordeaux a revolutionary meeting was held to back up Gambetta, but it was a failure, not more than 700 persons participating.

The intelligence from France is contradictory, but the telegrams indicate that the popular feeling is adverse to Gambetta's revolutionary policy, with a growing desire for peace. Things are a good deal mixed up, and a bitter struggle will take place for the control of the National Assembly. Telegrams from Berlin represent that in Germany serious apprehensions exist as to the possible renewal of hostilities under the factious leadership of Gambetta and associates, and that ample preparations are being made to resume the contest, on the part of Germany, if necessary, with such force as must crush out all opposition. If the Germans are again forced to arms the war will be posecuted relentlessly to the bitter end.

Much suffering exists at Paris. Notwithstanding the prodigious efforts to pour sufficient supplies into the city, hundreds were daily dying of want and starvation.

AT the close of the last session a resolution, introduced by Mr. Cessna, passed Congress authorizing the Postmaster General to revise and adjust the claim of a Mr. Chorpenning, of Somerset county, in this State, for unpaid services in carrying the mails in Utah and other territories, some years ago. Under this resolution, Postmaster General Cresswell awarded Chorpenning over $400,000, but there being no unappropriated money in the Treasury it was not paid. It turns out that the claim has been before the Post-office department, under successive administrations, but disallowed. Mr. Cresswell made the award under the evidence on file, as presented by Chorpenning's counsel, which turns out be partial and ex-parte. The attention of Congress being called to the matter last week, a resolution was promptly adopted to withhold payment and rescinding the resolution adopted at the close of last session.

Of course, the Copperhead press had made much ado about the matter, and have endeavored to implicate both Mr. Cresswell and Mr. Cessna in the alleged fraud. The former replies that his duties were only executive, and in obedience to the mandates of the House—that before the passage of the joint resolution by Congress he had refused to recognize the claim. On Tuesday Mr. Cessna made an explanation to the House of his connection with the resolution. It turns out that the whole thing was engineered by Judge Black, a leading light and recognized champion of Pennsylvania Democracy, as Chorpenning's counsel. Chorpenning was one of his constituents, and relying on the integrity of Judge Black's representations in the premises, he offered the resolution which passed Congress.—That was his entire connection with the matter. He knew nothing of the claim, other than as communicated to him by Chorpenning and counsel, and had no interest in it whatever. His only purpose was to serve one of his constituents who he believed at the time had an honest claim, although he himself had no idea of its extent. The resolution was presented near the close of the session, and he made no attempt to conceal the facts; on the contrary his attempts to explain the case were cut off by calls to order. Mr. Cessna closed with an earnest protestation of his integrity of purpose in this and all other legislation. Chorpenning himself is a Democrat.

COL. GEO. F. M'FARLAND has resigned his position as Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphan Schools, and the Governor has nominated to the Senate J. P. Wickersham, the present able and efficient Superintendent of Common Schools, as his successor, the duties of Superintendent of Soldier's Orphans' Schools to be in addition to those of Superintendent of Common Schools.

CONGRESS, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the quarrel between Germany and France, has gracefully authorized the use of national vessels to carry supplies for the suffering of both nations.

ON Tuesday the President sent to Congress a message recommending that the Mission at Berlin be raised to the first-class, in view of the growing power and importance of Germany.

A DARING burglary was committed in Philadelphia on Thursday night last, in the robbery of the Kensington National Bank—the tactics by which the burglars gained entrance to the bank being novel and adroit. As the bank was about closing, a gentleman in police uniform, called at the bank and told the Cashier the Detectives had information leading them to believe that an attempt on the bank would be made that night; whereupon the two night watchmen were ordered to be on their guard. About 7 o'clock, P. M., there was a rap at the door, and the watchmen, on opening it, found two police officers in full uniform, who said that, in view of confidential information as to a purposed burglary, they had been detailed to aid in protecting the bank. The watchmen gratified at this official aid, promptly admitted the men, who turned out to be professional "cracks-men" in disguise. The two watchmen were promptly disabled, gagged and bound. A third comrade was then called in, and the thieves went to work, with the tools peculiar to their calling. The vault was forced open and near $100,000 in U. S. Bonds, belonging to depositors, were secured. The safe, in which were the assets of the Bank amounting to over $1,000,000, resisted all efforts to force it, and the burglars abandoned their efforts about 3 o'clock in the morning, when they left. The watchmen then set to work to free themselves from their bonds, working mainly with their teeth, and in about two hours succeeded in regaining their feet, when the alarm was given. Genuine policemen soon made their appearance, and proceeded to work up the case, but thus far with no result. The daring character of the burglary produced much excitement throughout the city, and a crowd gathered around the bank, including anxious depositors concerned to know whether their goods and wares, deposited in the vaults for safe keeping, were safe or not. Boxes and packages had been overhauled by the thieves, and the contents scattered over the floor; but their evident aim was money, not goods. It is thought the missing bonds will not exceed $100,000.

THE Commissioners of Cumberland county have got into trouble. For some time there have been ugly rumors as to the loose administration of the county finances, and the accounts are now undergoing investigation by the Auditors. It is a Democratic family quarrel, all the officials being Democrats, Samuel Hepburn, jr., acting as counsel for the parties prosecuting the investigation. The Carlisle Herald thus adverts to several items which have been already unearthed:

Objection was made to the allowance of certain orders drawn by the Commissioners in favor parties who had contracts for the building of bridges. This brought about an investigation of matters, and the Commissioners and their former clerk were examined on oath concerning the transaction. Their testimony brought out the fact that a large sum of money was given to a certain contractor to get rid of his contract, and that another contractor was so very kind and benevolent as to give the Commissioners a neat little present of several hundred dollars after his contract was closed. There were several other similar transactions partially unearthed, which will make "mighty interesting reading" when they are fully developed.

In Lancaster and York counties, by special act of Assembly, the Commissioners and County Treasurer are required to state an account annually and file the same with vouchers in the Register's office, to be open to inspection of and exception by tax-payers for 30 days, and thence to be submitted to the County Auditors for adjustment. Not a bad idea. Administrators, Executors, Guardians and Trustees, are required to do this. Why not extend the principle to all persons exercising monied trusts, including County Treasurers?

A SINGULAR case of mistaken identity occurred in Philadelphia last week, in a murder trial. Several months ago, at 9 o'clock, A. M., a horse and buggy was seen to drive up to a bridge on the river, from which a man alighted with a small parcel, which was thrown over the bridge. The man returned to the buggy and drove off. Some women close by having their suspicions aroused went to the bank, and found the package, which proved to be a cigar box containing a living new-born infant. The latter died the same day. Later in the day, Dr. Neville, a respectable practising physician, was arrested, on the charge, and committed to answer. The trial came off last week, and the two women swore positively in identification of the Doctor, and that the horse and buggy driven to the bridge corresponded in appearance, color, build, &c., to the horse and buggy daily driven by the Dr. On the other hand Dr. Neville proved conclusively, by a large number of respectable witnesses, that he was on professional duty at the [illegible] in another part of the city, and followed it up with conclusive proof as to his whereabouts the entire day, besides calling a number of well known physicians and citizens as to high character. So conclusive was his defence, that the Commonwealth abandoned the case, and the Jury, under instructions from the Court, promptly rendered a verdict of not guilty.

On Tuesday the Senate passed, ayes 25, nays 6, the bill to transfer the Soldiers Orphan Schools to the Common School department.

THE Congressional Committee, appointed to inquire into the recent disturbances at West Point, made report on Tuesday, recommending the re-instatement of the three Cadets who had been dismissed. It seems that the difficulty was occasioned by some obstreperous Cadets of the first class. The Committee think the ring-leaders in the troubles should be summarily dismissed, and that the others who participated in it should be court-martialled. Among the Cadets in the first class are sons of President Grant and of the late Admiral Faragut and Adjutant General Townsend. Whether any of them are implicated in the difficulty, does not appear from the report of the committee.

THE contract for printing the Legislative Record has been awarded to John M. Carson, at $14 per page. The contract, in [illegible], is for the benefit of Mr. Bergner, of the Telegraph, and the proprietors of the Patriot and [illegible]. Now if it can be made a "daily" record of legislative doings and laid each morning on the tables of members, all will be good. A concise daily record of legislative action, promptly furnished, is desirable and a judicious expenditure of money. But if it is to be lumbered with speeches never delivered, and furnished at the convenience of the printer weeks after the people have cared to look up the record, it will be money thrown away.

SOLDIERS' LAND BILL.

THE following is the text of the soldiers' homestead bill as it passed the House of Reprentatives by a vote of 184 to 2. The decided vote by which it passed the House, makes it probable that it will receive the approval of the Senate:

A Bill to enable honorably discharged soldiers and sailors, their widows and orphan children to acquire homesteads on the public lands of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every private soldier and officer who had served in the army of the United States during the recent rebellion, for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged, and has remained loyal to the government, including the troops mustered into the service of the United States by virtue of the third section of an act entitled "An act making appropriations for completing the defenses of Washington, and for other purposes," approved February 13, 1862, and every seaman, marine and officer, or other person who has served in the navy of the United States, or in the marine corps during the rebellion, for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged, and has remained loyal to the Government, shall, on compliance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," and the acts amendatory thereof as hereinafter modified, be entitled to enter upon and receive patents for a quantity of public lands (not mineral) not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, or one quarter section, to be taken in compact form according to legal subdivisions, including the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the line of any railroad or other public work, or other lands subject to entry under the homestead laws in the United States, wherever public lands have or may be granted by acts of Congress: Provided, That said homestead settler shall be allowed twelve months after locating his homestead within which to commence his settlement and improvement: And provided also, That the time which the homestead settlers shall have served in the army, navy or marine corps as aforesaid, or if discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty, then the term of enlistment shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect title: settler, as aforesaid, may assign his homestead certificate within twelve months from the date thereof to any citizen of the United States over 21 years of age, or person who has declared his intention to become such, who has not previously availed himself of the homestead or pre-emption laws, and said assignee should succeed to all the rights of the said homestead settler; but no such assignor of a homestead certificate shall therefore have the right to avail himself of the benefit of this act or the acts heretofore passed granting homesteads to actual settlers; nor shall such assignee have the right to acquire any other homestead under said acts: Provided, however, That no patent shall issue to a homestead settler or his assignee who has not resided upon, improved, and cultivated his said homestead for a period of at least two years, except as provided in section four of this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person entitled under the provisions of the foregoing section to enter a homestead, who may have heretofore entered under the homestead laws a quantity of land less than one hundred and sixty acres, shall be permitted to enter under the provisions of this act so much land as, when added to the quantity previously entered, shall not exceed one hundred and sixty acres.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in case of the death of any person who would be entitled to a homestead under the provisions of the first section of this act, his widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, then his minor orphan children, shall be entitled to all the benefits enumerated in this act: Provided, That if such persons died during his term of enlistment, the whole term of his enlistment shall be deducted from the time heretofore required to perfect the title.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That every private soldier, and every seaman, marine, and officer who served in the army or navy for the said period of ninety days and is now inscribed on the pension rolls of the United States, or is entitled to be so inscribed on account of wounds received or disabilities incurred in the line of duty, may, in lieu of the rights, privileges and benefits hereinbefore conferred, enter upon, by an agent or attorney, and receive a patent for one quarter-section of land, as provided in section one of this act, and shall be entitled to the benefits of said first section, and liable to all the provisions thereof except as to the actual residence, and that all acts and things required to be done by said homestead settler, and said first section, may be done by said agent or attorney: Provided, That no such agent or attorney shall act as such for more than one person at the same time.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all declarations and proofs required under this act and the former acts granting homesteads to actual settlers may be taken before the judge or clerk of any court of record in the United States, or of any State or Territory, and, when duly authenticated under the official seal of such court, shall be of the same force and effect as if taken before the register or receiver of the propper land office.

SEC. 6 And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall have authority to make all needful rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

A YOUNG gentleman, after having paid his addresses to a lady for some time, popped the question. The lady, in a frightened manner, said:—"You scare me, sir." The gentleman did not wish to frighten the lady, and consequently remained quiet for some time, when she exclaimed, "Scare me again."

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Passengers [illegible], Mangled and [illegible].

On Monday [illegible] the 8 o'clock [illegible]cific [illegible] leaving New York [illegible] with an [illegible] train [illegible] River Railroad near New [illegible]. The oil train met with an [illegible] bridge, by the breaking of [illegible] axle, throwing an oil-car off the track, which got entangled with the timber of the bridge. The express train came thundering along, and struck the oil car, fragments of which were scattered in every directions, at once igniting and enveloping the entire express train in flames. The express was composed of one locomotive, one baggage car, one express car, and five or six sleeping cars. The locomotive was at once hurled into the river, and the engineer killed, and the baggage and the express cars were piled on top of the engine. At the same time the Chicago sleeping car was one sheet of flame, and though a desperate attempt was made to rescue the passengers, it is said not one got out a live. Two of the other sleeping cars next to it were also wrapped in flames, but the passengers in them all got out safely, and then the bridge took fire. In less than ten minutes the whole structure fell, carrying with it the Chicago car, and burying it and its inmates out of sight under the water, and among the ruins of the locomotive and the express cars. Nothing could be done for their salvation, and their charged corpses dropped with the smoking wreck through the chasm in the burned bridge to the bed of the river, and when daylight dawned the work of exhuming them was commenced. Twenty bodies were recovered and this is believed not to cover the entire loss of life.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

At an Educational meeting, held in Fairfield by our worthy County Superintendent on the evening of Jan. 17th, a Resolution was unanimously adopted in favor of holding an Institute for the Teachers of Sub-district No. five, comprising the townships of Hamiltonban, Highland, Liberty and Freedom.

This Institute convened, according to announcement, on the third inst., and organized by the appointment of Mr. P. Kready President and C. J. Sefton, Esq., Vice President, and the election of J. Levi Kittinger, Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Wert, an Executive committee was appointed, consiting of Miss Jennie Myers, Mr. H. H. Spence and Mr. J. G. Watson.

The exercises consisted of "Practical Talks" by the Superintendent, Class Drills, Critiisms, Select Readings, Discussions, Contests, &c., &c., interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. On Friday evening the Superintendent entertained the audience, by a very interesting address on the subject of "General Education," closing with a series of Readings. Other Readings followed by Messrs. Kready, Weigle and Kittinger.

The contest in Orthography was entered on Saturday morning, and the prize, a copy of Mrs. Randall's Work on "Elocution," awarded to Miss Jennie Myers.

The principal subjects for discussions, were "Parental Co-operation," "Township Institutes," Teachers' Salaries, &c., &c. Discussions participated in by Messrs. Wert Kready, Sefton, Jos. Kittinger, C. Fry, Spence, Wortz, Sanders, Pecher, Weigle, Musselman, Witherow, Toppes, Plank and J. L. Kittinger.

The Board of Directors of Hamiltonban generously granted their teachers the time to attend this meeting. Mr. Kready's school was in session during the forenoon of Friday, affording an opportunity for all the teachers to see his method of teaching.

The interest manifested by teachers, directors and citizens generally, gave evidence that the Institute was an entire success.

On motion the Secretary was authorized to prepare a condensed report of the proceedings for publication in the county papers.

ARDENT SPIRITS.

O that men should put an enemy in their mouths to steal away their brains! that we should with joy, pleasure and applause, transform ourselves to beasts:

SHAKSPEARE.

Those men who destroy a healthful constitution of body by intemperance and an irregular life, do as manifestly kill themselves as those who hang or poison or drown themselves.

SHERLOCK.

I challenge any man who understands the nature of ardent spirits, and yet, for the sake of gain, continues to be in the traffic, to show that he is not involved in the guilt of murder.

DR. LYMAN BEECHER.

I am deeply convinced, that the evils of intemperance can never cease till the virtuous in society shall unite in pronouncing the man who attempts to accumulate wealth, by dealing out poison and death to his neighbors, as infamous.

JOHN PIERPONT.

Who has a stupid intellect, a broken memory, a blasted wit, and, which is worse than all, a blind and benighted conscience, but the intemperate? So impossible is it to man to turn sot without making himself a blockhead too.

DR. SOUTH.

Truly, there is no enemy more dangerous than drunkenness—none more terrible than that of the drunkard. At one time it encounters man under the form of custom, habit, friendship; at another, under the deceitful garb of pleasure! But when it has once completely fastened on its victim, to what a pitiable state of moral degradation is he reduced! He will readily barter his own liberty, his honor, his character, his peace, and the very existence of his family—for what? For mere brute gratification! for senseless, stupid indulgence!

LARGE FOX.

Under the above heading appeared in the last week's Compiler an account of the capture of a large fox by Messrs. Jonathan Pittenturf and Samuel Spangler, which is represented as having been picked up by the dogs of the above men upon a "fair run" near the Pines Church.—Now, Mr. Editor, there is not one grain of truth in any of the Compiler's notice of the above chase, unless it is in the measurement of the fox.

That fox was caught by Messrs. John N. Graft, George Hudson, Albert and Leander Yeagy, with the hounds of the former gentleman, on the farm of J. U. Neely, Esq., near Hunterstown, in a fair chase in which neither of the Compiler's hunters appeared. But after the party who caught the fox had disapeared, at least an hour, Mr. John N. Graft who had the fox in his possession, ran into a large party of hunters, of whom the Compiler men were a part, and who had been on the trail of another fox, which had been lost. Upon Mr. Graft meeting this party Sam. Spangler rode up to him and asked to see the fox, and upon Mr. Graft handing it to him exclaimed, "this is my fox" and refused to return it and carried to Heidlersburg. These are the facts. All we want is— FAIR PLAY.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.—The Reading (Pa.,) Dispatch says: "The well-known superiority of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS will spare us the necessity of saying anything at length in favor of this magical Tonic and Stimulant. Wherever this Bitters is best known, it meets with an astonishing sale. This is the case in our section of the country. There are cases in this city where the most radical cures have been effected in chronic diseases—cures which the best physicians could not effect, and we know of scores of families (our own among the number,) who would not be without a plentiful supply of this great household remedy for any consideration. ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. M'Fadden, Murfresboro', Tenn. says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio writes I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

LOCAL ITEMS.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to Senator Duncan and Representative Herriter for sundry documents.

COLD SNAP.—Monday last was the coldest day of the season, the mercury, at sunrise, being 1 degree below zero.

A LARGE PORKER.—Lieut. James Hersh of New Oxford, slaughtered one day last week a porker weighing 528 pounds.

ZOUAVES.—We are requested to state that the Gettysburg Zouaves will meet for parade in Gettysburg on the 22nd instant.

CHANGE OF DAY.—Mr. J. E. Herman's sale of Personal Property, near Hampton, originally fixed for the 25th, will take place on Monday, Feb. 27. See adv.

LARGE HOGS.—Two Chester White Hogs were slaughtered by Isaac Rice, of Menallen township, Feb. 2, weighing respectively 547½ and 416 lbs when dressed. The amount of lard obtained was 219¾ pounds.

HOMEOPATHIC. — The Homeopathic Medical Society of Pennsylvania, held its 6th annual session in Harrisburg, last week. Dr. J. H. Marsden, of York Springs, this county, was elected President for the ensuing year, and Dr. W. H. Cook, of Carlisle, Chairman of the Board of Censors. The next annual session will be held in Harrisburg on the first Wednesday in Febuary, 1872.

SALES.—Jonas Spangler has purchased a house and 11 acres of land, in Mountjoy township, from John Stockslager, at $1,650.

Wm. Strickhouser has bought of George Cashman a House and half lot of ground on York street for $875.

A. F. Gitt has sold his two-story brick house on the corner of the Diamond in New Oxford, to Charles Crusty, for $2,300.

John C. Zouck sold a house and lot of ground near New Oxford, to Mrs. Mary Clunk for $800.

Patrick Dougherday, some time ago, sold his farm in Oxford township, containing about 33 acres, to John Mowery, at $55 per acre.

NEW OXFORD FOX CHASE.—On Friday of last week, Col. John H. McClellan, of this place, took a Fox to New Oxford, where a chase took place about one o'clock. There were a large number of horsemen from this place, East Berlin, and Hanover, numbering about fifty persons or more. The fox, after having about ten minutes start, made for the Conawago Hills in the direction of East Berlin, followed by several dozen hounds, and a fine chase was had until toward evening when the fox changed his course and made for Centre Mills near Bendersville. Night coming on, the fox made his escape, and the hunters returned to their homes.

COURT DOINGS.—But two additional cases were tried in Common Pleas last week, Court adjourning on Saturday morning, viz:

S. R. Russell, D. Wills, E. G. Fahnestock, et alias, vs. John Benchoff and others, involving the title to a tract of of timber land in the South mountain, purchased by the former at Sheriff's sale. Both parties claimed title and both proceeded to cut timber on the disputed premises, resulting in a suit by Plaintiffs against Defendants for trespass, &c.—The Jury rendered a special verdict for Plaintiffs for $123.98, subject to the opinion of the Court on the law as raised by defendant's 1st, 2d and 3d points.

James Russell, surviving Executor of Peter Wagoner, dec'd., now for use of Lewis Jordy, vs. Samuel Herbst, Administrator of Henry Steinour, dec'd. Appeal from Justice of the Peace. Verdict for the defendant.

TOWN MEETING.—A town meeting, called by order of the Town Council, was held in the Court-house on Tuesday night to consider the the propriety of purchasing a steam Fire Engine. In view of the importance of the subject matter, the Council desired to have an expression of on the part of tax-payers and property holders, to guide their action and relieve them from responsibility.

Hon. Robert McCurdy was called to the chair, and Jacob Aughinbaugh, Esq., appointed Secretary. After a full and free interchange of views, Messrs. A. M. Hunter, D. Wills, H. J. Stahle, R. G. McCreary, C. H. Buehler, J. L. Hill, D. A. Buehler, S. B. Rowe, and others participating in the discussion, the conclusion was reached that a steam-engine would not be of practical use in the present defective water supply in the borough, and that the best plan would be to provide fire machinery which will utilize the present water supply. The action of the Council, in ordering the repair of "Blue Dick" engine, was unanimously approved, and a resolution adopted requesting the Council to provide another light hand engine, either by repairing "Capt. May," or purchasing a new one.

MORE INCENDIARISM.—On Sunday night last, between 10 and 11 o'clock, the large shed on the farm of John Spangler, in Mountjoy township, was fired and destroyed with contents. The tenant, Mr. Wm. Patterson, loses heavily, three good horses, 4 stacks of cornfodder, all his hay, gears, harness, and Farming Utensils, except a wagon. The family were in bed, and were roused by the light of the burning shed. We understand that Mr. Patterson is insured in the Mummasburg Insurance Company.

This is the fourth fire that has occurred on the same premises within the last year, all under circumstances which leave no doubt as to their being the work of some malignant incendiary. First, Mr. Spangler's barn was burnt; then a new barn, erected in place of it, was burned about the time it was completed; then some hay-stacks; and now the fire of Sunday night.

On Wednesday last David Clapsaddle was arrested by officer Rouzer, and committed by Justice Cover on the oath of John Spangler, charged him with being concerned in the previous incendiarisims on his premises, viz:—the firing of the first barn on the night of the 19th of March, 1870; the second barn on the night of the 17th of July, 1870 and the hay-stacks on the morning of the 20th of August, 1870. Mr. Clapsaddle's family lives on the Wolf Hill, near Spangler's property, but he himself has been working this winter at or near Laurel Forge, Cumberland county, where he was arrested by officer Rouzer. We have not been advised of the facts on which the arrest was made.

SAFE INVESTMENT.—The attention of parties having funds to invest, is directed to the advertisement of the Trustees of Pa. College. The security is ample, payment of interest prompt, and the loan free from all taxation by special Act of the Legislature.

TO SELL—AT HALF PRICE.—A handsome CASE with glass front, suitable for store or library. Inquire at this office.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—It is the "Central Pennsylvania Conference" of the Methodist Episcopal Church which is to meet in Carlisle on the 8th of March next. Although 200 ministers are expected to be present, some idea of the strength of the Methodist Episcopal Church may be gathered from the fact that this is but one of seventy-two District Conferences which meet annually. The General Conference is made up of representatives from these Annual Conferences.

From the Statistical returns of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 1870 we glean the following items: There are 8 Bishops, 72 Annual Conferences, 9,193 Traveling Preachers; 1,367,134 lay members including members on probation.—There was raised for the Missionary, Tract, Bible, Sunday School, Church Extension Societies, and Conference Claimants $967,862. Sabbath Schools reported 16,912, Officers and Teachers 189,412, Scholars 1,221,393. The net increase in the number of churches is 1,325, an average of over four new churches for every working day in the year. In the last four years there has been an increase of 1,617 Preachers and 384,950 members.—The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church meets but once in four years, unless an extra session is called. Its next session will be held in the City of Brooklyn, commencing May 1st 1872. It will be composed of about 300 Ministerial delegates and 144 lay delegates.

CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.—On Friday last, testimony was taken at the Court-house, before Judge McCurdy, on behalf of B. F. Meyers, in the matter of the contested seat from this district. Mr. Meyers attended in person, while J. Alex. Simpson, Esq., Philadelphia, represented Mr. Cessna. A large amount of testimony was taken, but with little or no relevancy to the issue. Some half dozen votes were shown to have been irregularly cast for Mr. Cessna, including four colored votes from the Poor house. No attempt was made to sustain the sweeping allegations of fraud in connection with the elections in Gettysburg, Menallen, Butler, &c.

On Wednesday, the taking of the testimony on behalf of Mr. Cessna was begun, and is still in progress as we go to press. William McClean, Esq., conducts the cross-examination for Mr. Meyers. We understand that the number of illegal votes already shown to have been cast for Mr. Meyers, more than offsets those developed by the other side on Friday—so that the result of the examination in this county will leave a clear gain for Mr. Cessna.

We learn that it is the impression of knowing persons that the testimony taken in the different counties, makes out a clear case for Mr. Cessna, and that there can be little or no doubt of his securing the seat.

FRANKLIN COURT ITEMS.—At the recent Court of Common Pleas of Franklin county, the case of William A. Pitzer and Mary Catharine Pitzer, his wife, (of this county,) in right of said Mary, his wife, vs. George S. Christ, with notice to S. F. Greenawalt and Jeremiah Diehl, Assignees of Peter Brough, was decided in favor of the Plaintiffs. Peter Brough, Guardian of Mary Catharine Haines, (now Pitzer,) had received monies of his ward, which the Plaintiffs alleged and the Jury so found had been invested in a farm which was in possession of Christ, as tenant, in Franklin county. A special verdict was rendered in favor of Plaintiffs for the premises, to be released on the payment of $1,580.50, the amount of trust funds, in nine months, with interest from date of verdict.

At the Quarter Sessions term of the same Court, David Little was convicted of an assault and battery on Elizabeth Stoner, and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution, and undergo an imprisonment of one month in the county jail.

NARROW ESCAPE.—We are informed that a young lady named Bowman, residing with her brother-in-law, Mr. George Sell, at Plum Creek, a mile west of Hanover, made a very narrow escape from burning to death on Saturday night last. It appears that she had retired to bed at the usual hour and had fallen into a heavy slumber, when about midnight she was awakened by a burning sensation and was startled to discover that the bed in which she was lying was on fire, and that the pain she had experienced was caused by the flames coming in contact with her arms and hands, one of the latter being severely burned. With great presence of mind she rushed down to the kitchen and procured a bucket of water, with which she extinguished the flames without alarming the household. How the bed caught is a mystery, as upon resiring Miss B. did not take a lighted lamp or candle with her to the room. A partially burnt match, however, was found lying between the pillows and bolster, and as several matches were lying on a table in the room, the supposition is that it was dragged by mice to the bed, where it was ignited by some unknown means.—Spectator.

LOOKING UP.—The Frederick, Md., Examiner has a correspondent who writes from Mechanicstown, with lively appreciation of the wonder-working influences of railroads. It seems that the new road constructing to that place, has made quite a sensation in Europe, and is attracting the attention of royalty. We make an extract or two from his last letter:

> It is rumored that the widow of Maximilian, the Empress "Carlotta," now said to be perfectly restored to health, will visit St. Joseph's Seminary next summer. A number of distinguished persons from Brussels and Antwerp will accompany her.
> Letters received from Paris, and Munich in Bavaria, by some gentlemen near this place, state that a number of French and German families, with considerable means, contemplate permanently locating in close proximity to Mt. St. Mary's College and Mechanicstown. The fame of this place, thanks to the Western Md. Rail road and other agencies, will soon be extensively known in Europe. Some experienced miners from Cornwall are also coming over in the Spring to take a look at our mountain formation and deposits.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Jacob Carbaugh, a respected citizen of Waynesboro, aged 55 years, on last Monday morning, while walking on Main street, and when near to Mr. M'Ginley's shop, fell down suddenly and was carried into Mr. M'Ginley's house, where after a few moments he expired. His death was attributed to apoplexy.

Little Mary is gone. Oh how we miss her. Down, down my soul. At the feet of Jesus learn the lesson of submission, and by way of the Cross may look forward to the time when we shall meet our darling, now beckoning to us from the Saviour's arms, who carries the Lambs in his bosom. The Saviour's claims are stronger than ours—his love brighter—his home happier; and while we mourn her departure to a fairer clime, we feel that she came to show how sweet a flower in Paradise can bloom. Not lost—but gone before.

Grand Jury Report.

TO the Honorable Robert J. Fisher, President Judge, and Joseph J. Kuhn and Robert McCurdy, Associate Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions, in and for the county of Adams:

The undersigned, Grand Jurors of the county of Adams, at the request of the Court and the Commissioners, did visit the County Prison, where the Jurors were courteously received by Sheriff Klunk and lady, and the said Jurors found that the main building had been lately painted and everything connected with the prison clean and in order. The Jurors do further state that they found twenty-two prisoners in the Sheriff's charge, and that there are but eight cells in which prisoners can be securely kept; and that there are six cells in said prison which are entirely insecure for the safe keeping of prisoners.—The Jurors, therefore, do recommend that the Commissioners of the county have these six cells planked and made secure for the safe keeping of prisoners.

Witness our hands this 25th day of January, A. D. 1871.

CARBOLIC TABLETS,

PREPARED BY DR. WELLS.

The most important discovery of the age is this wonderful Healing and Cleansing agent for the diseases or weakness of the Respiratory organs, Sore Throat, Sudden Cold, Hoarseness, Catarrh, Asthma, Dryness of the Throat or Windpipe, diseases of the Lungs and for all irritation of the mucous membrane.

All vocalists and public speakers who speak and sing without effort, use these Tablets; their effect in clearing the voice is simply astonishing as can be shown by numerous certificates.

DR. WELLS' CARBOLIC TABLETS act directly on the mucous membrane and should be promptly and freely taken in all exposure or violent change of weather, as they equalize the Circulation of the Blood and thus ward off all tendency to colds and lung difficulty.

The proprietors would say, all first-class medicines have their imitations, and they would CAUTION the public against imposition by having other medicines thrust upon them in place of these admirable Tablets.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

Henry T. Hembold's
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Will radically exterminate from the system Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, Cankers, Runnings from the Ear, White Swellings, Tumors, Cancerous Affections, Nodes, Rickets, Glandular Swellings, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Humors of all Kinds, Chronic Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its Blood-purifying properties are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color and restores the patient to a state of Health and Purity. For purifying the Blood, removing all Chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Pains and swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and beautifying the complexion. Price, $1.50 per Bottle.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED

Fluid Extract Buchu,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given, Irritation of the neck of the Bladder and inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, diseases of the Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brickdust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions of both Sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is Diuretic and Blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., Superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these diseases used in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent Physicians and Midwives for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions, of both Sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above Diseases or Symptoms).

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, ETC.,

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Uretha, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price, One Dollar and Fifty Cents per Bottle.

L

H. T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specified remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Incipient Inflammation, Hives, Rash, Moth Patches, Dryness of the Scalp or Skin, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invaluable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu, Sarsaparilla, and Catawba Grape Pills in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. Price, One Dollar per Bottle.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

HEALTH! HEALTH!!

MILLER'S DYSPEPSIN AND LIVER INVIGORATOR,

Is a Sure Cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Bilious Complaints, Sick Headache, Costiveness, and all irregularities of the Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys.

DYSPEPSIN

Is the great discovery of the age; as it is a purely VEGETABLE PREPARATION containing all the MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF ROOTS, HERBS and BARKS in a concentrated form and free from all irritating vegetable matter.

1st. It is a TONIC, giving an appetite and producing a healthy condition of the stomach.

2nd. It is an APERIENT or GENTLE LAXATIVE, and does not produce any griping or pain in its action on the bowels, and leaves them in a healthy condition.

3rd. It is a DIURETIC and operates like a charm on the Kidneys, therefore it is one of the best Medicines in the World for diseases of these organs.

4th. It is probably one of the best CHOLAGOGUES known, as it stimulates the Liver to a healthy action, carries off the bile and thereby relieves you of Headache and all bilious symptoms.

5th. It is the most excellent ANTIPHLOGISTIC ever known, and therefore its great powers over all other Medicines in curing dyspepsia.—Persons troubled with dyspepsia always have more or less inflammation of the stomach, therefore its great success is owing to its power of allaying inflammation. It makes no difference how weak, irritable, delicate or tender the stomach may be, THE DYSPEPSIN will give relief at once, and by continuing only a reasonable length of time it will make a certain cure.

Full directions on each bottle. $1.00 per bottle or $5.00 for six bottles.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

Safe! Profitable! Permanent!

JAY COOKE & CO.

Offer for Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds
OF THE

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

THESE bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling-stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of Seven and Three-tenths Per Cent. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at Ten Per Cent. Premium (or 1.10), in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest curret price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan.

FINANCIAL.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN

OF THE

Northern Pacific Railroad Company

Secured by First Mortgage on Railroad and Land Grant.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT

JAY COOKE & Co.,

Offer for sale at par and accrued interest the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They are free from United States Tax, and are issued of the following denominations: Coupons $100, $500, and $1,000; Registered $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

With the same entire confidence with which we commended Government bonds to Capitalists and People, we now, after the fullest investigation, recommend these Northern Pacific Railroad bonds to our friends and the general public.

GOLD PAYMENT.—Both principal and interest are payable in American gold coin, at the office of Jay Cooke & Co., New York City—the principal at the end of 30 years, and the interest (at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum) half-yearly, first of January and July.

PERFECT SAFETY.—The bonds we are now selling, are secured by a first and only mortgage on all the property and rights of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, which will embrace on the completion of the work:

1. Over Two Thousand Miles of Road, with rolling stock, buildings, and all other equipments.

2. Over Twenty-two Thousand Acres of Land to every mile of finished road. This land, agricultural, timbered and mineral, amounting in all to more than Fifty Million Acres, consists of alternate sections, reaching twenty to forty miles on each side of the track, and extending in a broad fertile belt from Wisconsin through the richest portions of Minnesota, Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, to Puget Sound.

While the Government does not directly guarantee the bonds of the Road, it thus amply provides for their full and prompt payment by an unreserved grant of land, the most valuable ever conferred upon a great national improvement.

THE MORTGAGE.—The Trustees under the Mortgage, are Messrs. Jay Cooke of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company. They will directly and permanently represent the interests of the First Mortgage bond holders, and are required to see that the proceeds of the land sales are used in purchasing and cancelling the bonds of the Company if they can be bought before maturity at not more than 10 per cent. premium; otherwise the Trustees are to invest the proceeds of land sales in United States Bonds or Real Estate Mortgages for the further security of Northern Pacific bondholders. Also, that they have at all times in their control, as security, at least 500 acres of average land to every $1,000 of outstanding first mortgage bonds, besides the railroad itself and all its equipments and franchises.

PROFITABLENESS.—Of course nothing can be safer than the bonds of the United States, but as the Government is no longer a borrower, and as the Nation's present work is not that of preserving its existence, but that of developing a continent, we remind those who desire to increase their income and obtain a more permanent investment, while still having a perfectly reliable security, that:

United States 5-20's at their average premium yield the present purchaser less than 5½ per cent. gold interest. Should they be redeemed in five years, and specie payments be resumed, they would really pay only 4⅝ per cent., or if in three years, only 3½ per cent., as the present premium would meanwhile be sunk.

Northern Pacific 7-30's selling at par in currency yield the investor 7 3-10 per cent. gold interest absolutely, for thirty years, free from United States tax. $1,100 currency invested now in United States 5-20's will yield per year in gold, say $62.00. $1,100 currency invested now in Northern Pacific 7-30's will yield per year in gold, $80.30.—Here is a difference in annual income of nearly one-third, besides a difference of 7 to 10 per cent. in principal, when both classes of bonds are redeemed.

THE ROAD NOW BUILDING.—Work was begun in July last on the eastern portion of the line, and the money provided, by the sale to stockholders of some six millions of the Company's bonds, to build and equip the road from Lake Superior across Minnesota to the Red River of the North—233 miles. The grading on this division is now well advanced, the iron is being rapidly laid; several thousand men are at work on the line, and about the first of August next this important section of the road will be in full operation. In the meantime orders have been sent to the Pacific coast for the commencement of the work on the western end in early Spring, and thereafter the work will be pushed, both eastward and westward, with as much speed as may be consistent with solidity and a wise economy.

RECEIVABLE FOR LANDS.—These bonds will be at all times, before maturity, receivable at 1.10, in payment for the Company's lands, at their lowest cash price.

BONDS EXCHANGEABLE.—The registered bonds can be exchanged at any time for coupons, the coupons for registered, and both these can be exchanged for others, payable, principal and interest, at any of the principal financial centres of Europe, in the coin of the various European countries.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our agents, who will allow the highest current price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this loan.

TRUTH.

THE following beautiful illustration of the simplicity and power of truth, is from the pen of S. H. Hammond, formerly editor of the Albany State Register. He was an eye-witness of the scene in one of the higher courts.

A little girl, nine years of age, was offered as a witness against a prisoner who was on trial for felony committed in her father's house.

"Now Emily," said the counsel for the prisoner, upon her being offered as a witness, "I desire to know if you understand the nature of an oath?"

"I don't know what you mean," was the simple answer.

"There, your Honor," said the counsel, addressing the court, "is anything further necessay to demonstrate the validity of my objection? This witness should be rejected. She does not comprehend the nature of an oath."

"Let us see," said the judge. "Come here my daughter."

Assured by the kind tone and manner of the judge, the child stepped toward him, and looked confidently up in his face, with a calm, clear eye, and in a manner so artless and frank, that went straight to the heart.

"Did you ever take an oath?" inquired the judge. The little girl stepped back with a look of horror, and the red blood mantled in a blush all over her face as she answered,

"No, sir."

She thought that he intended to inquire if she had ever blasphemed.

"I do not mean that," said the judge, who saw her mistake, "I mean were you ever a witness before?"

"No sir; I never was in court before," was the answer,

He handed her the bible, open.

"Do you know that book, my daughter? She looked at it and answered, "Yes, sir, it is the Bible."

"Do you ever read it?" he asked.

"Yes, sir, every evening."

"Can you tell me what the Bible is?" inquired the judge.

"It is the word of God," she answered.

"Well, place your hand upon this Bible, and listen to what I say;" and he repeated slowly and solemnly the oath usually administered to witnesses.

"Now," said the judge, "You have sworn as a witness: will you tell me what will befall you if you do not tell the truth?"

"I shall be shut up in the State Prison," answered the child.

"Anything else?" asked the judge.

"I shall never go to heaven," she replied.

"How do you know this?" asked the judge again.

The child took the Bible, and turning rapidly to the chapter containing the Commandments, pointed to the injunction.

"Thou shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor." "I learned that before I could read."

"Has any one talked with you about your being a witness in court here against this man?" inquired the judge.

"Yes, sir," she replied. "My mother heard they wanted me to be a witness and last night she called me to her room and asked me to tell her the Ten Commandments, and then we kneeled down together, and she prayed that I might understand how wicked it was to bear false witness against my neighbor, and that God would help me, a little child, to tell the truth as it was before Him. And when I came up here with father she kissed me, and told me to remember the ninth Commandment, and that God would hear every word that I said."

"Do you believe this?" asked the judge, while a tear glistened in his eye, and his lip quivered with emotion.

"Yes, sir," said the child, with a voice and manner that showed her conviction of its truth was perfect.

"God bless you, my child," said the judge, "you have a good mother. This witness is competent," he continued.

"Were I on trial for my life, and innocent of the charge against me, I would pray God for such witnesses as this. Let her be examined."

She told her story with the simplicity of a child, as she was; but there was a directness about it which carried conviction of its truth to every heart. She was rigidly cross-examined. The counsel plied her with infinite and ingenious questioning, but she varied from her first statement in nothing. The truth as spoken by the little child was sublime. Falsehood and perjury had proceeded her testimony. The prisoner had intrenched himself in lies. Witnesses had falsified facts in his favor, and villiany had manufactured for him a sham defence. But before her testimony it was all scattered like chaff. The little child for whom a mother had prayed for strength to be given her to speak the truth as it was before God, broke the cunning devices of matured villany to pieces like a potter's vessel. The strength that her mother prayed for was given her, and the sublime and terrible simplicity—terrible, I mean, to the prisoner and his associate—with which she spoke, was like a revelation from God himself.

A Great Medical Discovery

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS.

Hundreds of thousands bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all the poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

BILIOUS, REMITTENT and INTERMITTENT FEVER, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great Rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others with their vast tributaries, during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during the seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. There are always more or less obstructions of the liver, a weakness and irritable state of the stomach, and great torpor of the bowels, being clogged up with vitiated accumulations. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S Vinegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the dark colored viscid matter with which the Bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs. The universal popularity of this valuable remedy in regions subject to miasmatic influences, is sufficient evidence of its power as a remedy in such cases.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

DR. SCHENCK

ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicine, were getting well.

One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there.—The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh, and the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than here, there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence, my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third, at least, of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about scarlet fever, small pox, &c. But they are not. They take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days.—They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope for cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected even slightly is, to lay a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough or night-sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is to give my three medicines, in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and the gratification of that relish comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs. Then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night-sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point, by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 N. SIXTH Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M., to 3 P. M.—Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my medicine depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

THE GREAT

MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. DE LAROQUE'S

Great Cuban Oil Anodyne

LINIMENT,

Used both Internally and Externally for Man and Beast.

THIS Valuable Remedy was discovered by Prof. DE LAROQUE, on the Island of Cuba, in the year 1724, after a lifetime of diligent study and chemical experiments. The following remarks and directions are a correct translation of the Spanish language as written by Dr. De Laroque:

"These experiments are especially directed for the purpose of discovering the Anodyne Properties of the different VEGETABLE OILS, with a view of excluding all irritating Vegetable matter. My object in making these CHEMICAL AND ANALYTICAL INVESTIGATIONS is for the purpose of discovering a Remedy which will promote the absorption by the minute lacteals of the villous coat of the Stomach and Bowels, which are always found more or less inflamed in disease of these organs, and hence its great curative properties in the following diseases.

MILLER'S

DYSPEPSIN

AND

LIVER INVIGORATOR,

Is a Sure Cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Bilious Complaints, Sick Headache, Costiveness, and all irregularities of the Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys.

DYSPEPSIN

Is the great discovery of the age; as it is a purely VEGETABLE PREPARATION containing all the MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF ROOTS, HERBS and BARKS in a concentrated form and free from all irritating vegetable matter.

1st. It is a TONIC, giving an appetite and producing a healthy condition of the stomach.

2nd. It is an APERIENT or GENTLE LAXATIVE, and does not produce any griping or pain in its action on the bowels, and leaves them in a healthy condition.

3rd. It is a DIURETIC and operates like a charm on the Kidneys, therefore it is one of the best Medicines in the World for diseases of these organs.

4th. It is probably one of the best CHOLAGOGUES known, as it stimulates the Liver to a healthy action, carries off the bile and thereby relieves you of Headache and all bilious symptoms.

5th. It is the most excellent ANTIPHLOGISTIC ever known, and therefore its great power over all other Medicines in curing dyspepsia.—Persons troubled with dyspepsia always have more or less inflammation of the stomach, therefore its great success is owing to its power of allaying inflammation. It makes no difference how weak, irritable, delicate or tender the stomach may be, THE DYSPEPSIN will give relief at once, and by continuing only a reasonable length of time it will make a certain cure.
